

JOB DESCRIPTION OF CHILDREN MINISTER

BACKGROUND: Chinese Church in Christ (CCIC) is an evangelical Asian church consisting of three language groups: Cantonese, English, and Mandarin. Our goal is to reach out to people in Silicon Valley and around the world with the gospel of Jesus Christ and bring them to know and serve Him. Through church planting, there are now a total of eight independently managed CCIC churches in Silicon Valley. CCIC at San Jose is looking for a children minister to lead the children's ministry, training children of 5th grade and younger to know and follow Jesus Christ as Lord. Below are the position's responsibilities and required qualifications. Interested candidates are encouraged to visit our website, www.ccic-sj.org, to learn more about the church history, governance, and on-going ministries.

SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Lead children's ministry programs such as Sunday schools, summer and AWANA programs.
2. Build and maintain strong volunteer teams of adults and youths to serve in children's ministry.
3. Mentor and counsel children and/or parents when needed.
4. Collaborate and support other ministries when needed.
5. Attend regular minister/staff meetings.

QUALIFICATIONS:

1. Demonstrated commitment to serving the Lord in personal life and/or church ministries.
2. Excellent leadership, organizational, and interpersonal skills.
3. Passionate about discipling and evangelizing children.
4. Previous experience in children ministry is highly preferred.
5. Bible college or seminary degree is preferred.

BENEFITS: besides regular compensation, CCIC offers multiple additional benefits such as retirement plan, employee assistance program, health/dental/vision insurances, paid time off, parental leave, sabbatical leave, etc.
